ENTRY TO THAILAND

FLIGHTS

Thailand is well connected to the rest of the world. Most airlines fly into Bangkok. Thai Airways is the national carrier of Thailand.

The nearest airports are Suvarnabhumi International Airport (14 km by car to venue) and Don Mueang International Airport (39 km by car to venue).

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Thailand is open to the world and welcomes all international visitors. From July 1st, international travellers do not need to show proof of vaccination or Covid-19 insurance, and quarantine is no longer needed. Thailand Pass is also no longer in use.

Please check the link below for further details regarding Covid-19 testing requirements and visa matters. https://www.thaiembassy.com/travel-to-thailand/how-to-travel-to-thailand-in-2022

Do check with the Royal Thai Embassy in your respective countries if further clarification is required. https://www.thaiembassy.org/

TRANSPORT TO HOTEL

Airport transfer

Book a private vehicle to take you to and from your hotel. Available on travel booking sites such as Agoda, booking.com, trip.com etc.

Hotel shuttle

Check with your hotel if they provide a shuttle service from the airport

Public transport

The Airport Rail Link (ARL) connects Suvarnabhumi Airport to the MRT Subway blue line (via Makkasan - Phetchaburi station), and the BTS Skytrain Sukhumvit line (via Phaya Thai station). Please check this link for more details https://www.bangkokairportonline.com/bangkok-airport-rail-link/

From Don Mueang Airport you can transfer to Bangkok Railway Station in the city centre, and take the MRT Subway blue line from Hua Lamphong station.

TOURIST SIM CARD

Tourist SIM cards are readily available. You can find booths of the three major telecoms providers located at various locations such as the baggage claim area, arrival terminal or convenient stores such as 7–11.
